

Vroom, vroom! Get your writing juices flowing with a Summer Road Trip Mad Lib!

Brought to you by author April Jones Prince

Think juicy words!

Last summer, my parents took me and _____ on a trip [name]

to _____. We drove through many _____ [place] [plural noun]

to get there. The journey took _____ days. But it was worth it!
[number]

When we got there, the weather was _____. People
[adjective]

were busy doing their usual activities, _____ the [verb ending in -ing]

_____ and swimming in the _____. We [noun] [noun]

joined in with gusto. We also loved eating _____ [adjective]

_____ and visiting the famed _____ to [plural noun] [plural noun]

collect _____. _____, it was truly a [plural noun] [exclamation]

_____ trip!
[adjective]